

Islands. This
and the situa-
and such bot
ds a congenial
t are the habits counts for the very similar to
to the grassy

han by that of
ean continent,
reden, is much
e peninsula of
that it is most
the Carnatic.
stony land, and

pril and returns
es, or in threes,
l stony hillocks
a small shrub,
oots, lined with white, sprinkled
l of incubation
of one or two rate height and
the young are
g of September hotter part of
small spiders,
n the stalks of
swiftness to a
r travel in com-
ntice them into a " preference bushes. It is

is rarely found is composed of placed in slight
y; for they can

ooth quickly and Lark.

gh not so much
; in others the
eatly resembles.
n in the centre,
whole presents a
ined with bright
, narrowly edged
outer tail-feathers
arrow interrupted
brown; over the
wn on each side
breast and down
; upper mandible