

d of April
the 14th
d so early
in future
ng climbed
once been
nted, when
h, alarmed
forgot our surprised to breeding in orest) were
th old ones
ce-fir tree;
branches.
grass, and
of fine dry
t five were
lar to those
y so much;
ould suffice
es; they all
much more

unbling, the
it in the fir-
colonies; for
hrush's egg
to describe
We took young were

13th June,
ieve, seldom

for this and Doverfeld in all the nests
tance of our

and richer in
both seasons.
rplish brown
yellow; like
confirmation of
mention that samples from

far south is
the northern