

of which
Park are
y denizens

its of the ream; but
ring ditch
tic insect,
tion takes
every ditch
creatures,
risties; not glish bird a
oked. No
hat, of the y nest was may seem e under my

in a preci-
top of my
of fish, con-
spade; and
the passage
moved with erly sod. A
ne had taken
om the date
that it was ool from my e during my
the cotton-
ch were fully e old female
ing-place for
had been cast
ts are divided
e disposed to e hole being that they are from what I oted to defend

Eucalypti; the
ingfisher, and
ward-slanting
s an oven-like
the slanting
om this cloaca
use; for if the
by a spinning-
about on the venous brood.
essed from the
is mate in size,

pt the extreme
aced by a nearly