KING ALFRED*

In the event of widespread and continuing and coordinated racial disturbances in the United States, KING ALFRED, at the discretion of the President, is to be put into action immediately.

But that way of life was repugnant to most Americans. Since 1954, however, that unrest and discord have broken out into widespread violence which increasingly have placed the peace and stability of the nation in dire jeopardy. This violence has resulted in loss of life, limb and property, and has cost the taxpayers of this nation billions of dollars. And the end is not yet in sight. This same violence has raised the tremendously grave question as to whether the races can ever live in peace with each other. Each passing month has brought new intelligence that, despite new laws passed to alleviate the condition of the Minority, the Minority still is not satisfied. Demonstrations and rioting have become a part of the familiar scene. Troops have been called out in city after city across the land, and our image as a world leader severely damaged. Our enemies press closer, seeking the advantage, possibly at a time during one of these outbreaks of violence. The Minority has adopted an almost military posture to gain its objectives, which are not clear to most Americans. It is expected, therefore, that, when those objectives are denied the Minority, racial war must be considered inevitable. When that Emergency comes, we must expect the total involvement of all 22 million members of the Minority, men, women and children, for once this project is launched, its goal is to terminate, once and for all, the Minority threat to the whole of the American society, and, indeed, the Free World.

Combined Memo: Department of Justice Federal Bureau of Investigation Central Intelligence Agency

There are 12 major Minority organizations and all are familiar to the 22 million. Dossiers have been compiled on the leaders of the organizations, and can be studied in Washington. The material contained in many of the dossiers, and our threat to reveal that material, has considerably held in check the activities of some of their leaders. Leaders who do not have such usable material in their dossiers have been approached to take Government posts, mostly as ambassadors and primarily in African countries. The promise of those positions also has materially contributed to a temporary slowdown of Minority activities. However, we do not expect these slow-downs to be of long duration, because there are always new and dissident elements joining these organizations, with the potential power to replace the old leaders. All organizations and their leaders are under constant, 24-hour surveillance. The organizations are:

1—The Black Muslims 2—Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee (SNCC)

3—Congress of Racial Equality 4-Uhuru Movement

5—Group on Advanced Leadership (GOAL)

6—Freedom Now Party (FNP) 7-United Black Nationalists of America (UBNA)

8.—The New Pan-African Movement (TNPAM) 9-Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC)

10-The National Urban League (NUL) 11—The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP)

12—Committee on Racial and Religious Progress (CORARP)

13. Black Panther Party

NOTE: At the appropriate time, to be designated by the President, the leaders of some of these organizations are to be detained ONLY WHEN IT IS CLEAR THAT THEY CANNOT PREVENT THE EMERGENCY, working with local public officials during the first critical hours. All other leaders are to be detained at once. Compiled lists of Minority leaders have been readied at the National Data Computer Center. It is necessary to use the Minority leaders designated by the President in much the same manner in which we use Minority members who are agents with CENTRAL and FEDERAL, and we cannot, until there is no alternative, reveal KING ALFRED in all its aspects. Minority members of Congress will be unseated at once. This move is not without precedent in American history.

AN OPEN LETTER TO THE BLACK COMMUNITY**

Many people are wondering what will be the direction in which the Black students will go this year. Last year blacks students had a great deal to do with the turmon1 Press portrayed them headed beasts, that were always demanding--never asking. In most cases, the people, the people of our community fell prey that what the mass media had to say, and along with the rest of the nation, were quite negative in their trhoughts of Black students.

In the past, the--black college student are respected and revered in his community. The -people thought highly of him because through his hard work he attended a college or University. However, the student looked upon the community as a place "he'd been and never wanted to return. In fact, this theory was carried out in practice, as parents of students found that their students ideals and way of expressing their objectives changed parent/student communication was _ almost impossible.

In all, the attitude of the Black student was one of being a snob. This was due to all of this praise the continued disrupwe recieved from our community, this "went to his head", and gave him the idea that he was different closed down, it could or even better than the very people that we have come from.

UNIVERSITY

I. Earlier Attempts Discussions and writings on the Black University reflect the difficulty which Black theorists face in overcoming the impact of Western thought and their essential distancesphysically and dynamically-from the Black tively constructed masses. While this is understandable, it is not necessarily excusable, unless such persons are willing at the same time to recognize that they have not yet unlocked the door leading to the aubeginning. He can only hope to offer some clues, some senas to how an "ideal model" of a Black University might appear. A review of the literature on Black Universities suggest that most proposals thus far, have used the white-controlled anti-people educational construct as a model.(1) Such efforts have been reactions to white schemes rather than articulation of Black enactments. The evidence for this assertion is seen in the proliferation of Black Studies Programs on white college campuses; the confrontation and collective begging (not bargaining) to achieve a genuine response from such institutions; and desertions of such campuses, after the failure of negotiation to materialize, as is the case at Federal City College and Duke University. The Malcolm College (Durham, N.C.) has arisen out of the ashes of the Duke confrontation.(2) The Black Education Program at FCC is now supposedly operating in the community.

The newest cliche, then, is that "It is impossible to conduct a Black program on a white-controlled campus." This is not only a possible copout but essentially an appeal to the white conscience for legitimitation of the Black conscious.

Such a position assumes that the majority of Black students have engaged in their own prior self-liberation before the confrontation. It also is based on the assumption that, if white institutions approve the establishment of autonomous Black Studies Programs, such programs can be effec-here is that the Black University exists without the generalized consciousnesness of it by Black educators: It is a movement, not a physical building or a formal social institution. It has no admissions requirements for Blacks. It's tuition fees are known as dues. Its faculty and its students are one and the same. It exists where ever Black people are. It's not a replica of the white university-nor does it discourage Blacks from attending such. On one level it is the transformation of the Black world from oppression to liberation. It requires reason, effort, imagination, skill and commitment. Black men, authentic ones, are teaching and learning in the Black University wherever they are. They are converting white entrepreneurism into Black economic cooperation; white competition into Black communalism; and white-controlled Negro communities into Blackcontrolled Black communities.

In the last analysis, the ultimate goal of the Black University is to liberate the Black world. It will take liberated minds, hearts and souls to achieve this goal. It will take sustained participation in the Black University to produce these kinds of individuals.

Molina had already been tried and convicted by a jury; he was serving a 20-year sentence in a state prison for murder; it seemed that the federal government had no right to intercede. The Governor of New York State was a Republican, while the President was a Democrat.

But all these legal problems vanished when the ruling class decided that they had to get Artime pack. Governor Rockefeller signed a pardon, and within a day Francisco Molina was on his way to Cuba, Free Territory of the ameriKKKas. Rockefellers opponents in the ruling class didn't breathe a word of criticism. All the legal fol-de-rol was swept away because the Establishment decided it was in their interest to carry out the exchange.

The legal complications are not as great in the case of the Panthers, since the trails have not yet taken place. It is not a question of overruling a jury. The Panthers could be released immediately if the federal government urged the state authorities to drop the indictments.

NO MORE NIGGER WILL I BE

No longer will I slave and toil My life away on white man's soil. Breaking my back for nothing more Then a spit in the face and a slamming door. No longer will I live or die In his back alleys under his filthy skies. Which rats have left and death now crawls. In tenement houses with gnawed up walls. No longer will I accept his lies. Or flee his intimidating spies, who lurking in the shadows slip To lash my back with malicious whips. The white man's fool I'll never be. Or be tormented by his cruelties. Instead I'llmar ch with vigor and pride Until all his evil acts subsides. Then no more nigger will I be. My chains will break and I'll be free. And all my sufferings will be of the past.
