I anticipate one day, however, that I will be arrested and there will be no legal procedure any lawyer will be able to secure my release. In fact, the first question will not be, Let's get Rap out of jail. It'll be Where is Rap?

H. RAP BROWN

"This country was born of violence. Violence is as american as cherry pie. Black people have always been violent, but our violence has always been directed toward each other. If nonviolence is to be practiced, then it should be practiced in our community and end there."

- H. Rap Brown, Detroit, 1967

Die Nigger Die!

H. RAP BROWN was born in Baton Rouge, Louisiana, in 1943. He received his education there, and for a time attended Southern University.

He joined SNCC in 1963 and in 1966 worked in Alabama for the organization as State Project Director. He was Chairman of SNCC from 1967-68.

Since October of 1967, H. Rap Brown has been confined to New York City under house arrest, pending trial in Maryland on charges of arson and inciting to riot. In June of 1968, he was convicted on a gun-carrying charge, sentenced to five years in jail and given the maximum fine of $2000; this case is now being appealed. He has also been charged with intimidation of an officer of the FBI.

Mr. Brown has recently married; his wife, Lynne, is a former schoolteacher.
