

constitute my happiness there is many things I have had & have to contend with that is not pleasant to flesh & blood but still when I think of the Goodness of God to me & Mine when I think how many there are groaning in anguish & Pain day & night with little or no int ermission many are deprived of their sight & others of the use of their limbs many are in prisons & Lunatic Asylums while I am in health & strength with the enjoyment of health & strength Liberty of Body & use of my rational faculties & the enjoyment of Religious conso lation & food & Raiment hereto the poet says thy presence makes my paradise & where thou art is heaven & although I feel consue
