

85.
that I do not live up to my privilege in this respect as I ought to yet I can say that the consolations of my God are neither few nor small unto me in my otherwise loneliness I feel that his providence is still over me & you & that if we look to him in sincerity & truth he will be our guide even unto death Again you say what sort of place do you sleep in — very comfortable at present I Board with an Englishman a Tailor by trade with a Wife & 4 Children & they do my washing although I have not been quite so well fixed all the time I have been in Kansas I have had to sleep more the rats have ran over me & slapped their tails in my face I ask little
