

it turned very cold & a violent Snow Storm came on & a mighty wind would sweep the prairie with tremendous fury - this would continue for a fortnight or so & then a few days of fine weather in which vegetation would take a mighty stride the bottom Grass would get green buds come out on the trees birds fly about I sing in the Groves & one bird esp ecially would say Lovey - Lovey - Lovey when soon the Clouds would gather blackness the wind would spring up & now a Storm of Hail & then a Storm of Snow setting in with frost the snow is now on the ground with a sharp frost & still snowing but the Lord mingle his Mercies with crops the few fine days we have had I have endeavoured to improve to the best Advantage in prospecting looking for a claim & finding a loca tion & so to behold I have found one
