

Leavenworth K. T. July 31st 1859

S. S. Cox

Dear Sir

The constitutional convention has finished its work, which I think that Congress will not have to pass on any of its contents for it will not never come before that body if the present opinions of the people are any indication of what they will do. The Constitution gives to woman the right to vote on all school questions, which will eventually give them a voice in every department of the state government!

It is considered a mere party organ and domineering over the minority the democracy refused to give it any continuance what ever and they wish.
