

Yoxford Academy,
Dec^r 5th. 1849.

Delightful news,
my dear Parents, I have now to impart to you,—notice of the near approach of our Christmas Holidays.

Friday the 21st. of December is the day appointed for their commencement, when we shall all pack up our books and return home to enjoy the mince-pies, plum puddings, and other festivities awaiting us.

Now I must tell you a few of H.

Je

Cyan

Green

Yellow

Red

Magenta

White

3/Color

Black

KODAK Color Control Patches

©Eastman Kodak Company, 1997

Kodak

our principal studies this half-year.

We read in the Bible generally every morning and are now up to the reign of Hezekiah king of Judah. In England we have nearly finished the reign of George 3rd., in whose time the United States declared themselves independent of Britain. In Mangnall's Questions (our Friday's lesson) we have a great deal of varied historical information, and in a most pleasing and instructive shape, for it is by question and answer. We also read

and haste
Spe
and
lesson
wha
find
I co
ing
very been