

form, hoping that their perusal may afford you some pleasure in your moments of relaxation from the cares and responsibilities connected with your high official position.

I have the honor to be, General,

Your obedient servant,

SILAS SEYMOUR.

NEW YORK, Feb. 1, 1867.