My dear Sir

Your favor of the 5th is rec<sup>d</sup>. The Rev. Daniel Foster shall be looked after, if he has anything to say derogatory to you; he will find this the wrong latitude, besides not being the right time.
The result of the election has caused more happiness to all honest men; than can well be described;
tho. we are still in some doubt about the exact returns. The newspapers do not express the feeling at all, for they are filled with other things. Let us thank God + him alone. You are an instrument in His hand. I hope the rest of yr. life will be such that when it becomes a part of the history of our country, you may be held up as a model for our children, + their posterity after them: like John Hampden a lover of liberty, + a lover of his country, his whole country: that no sectional party shall ever be able to claim you, as exclusively their own: that you had a higher motive
