

July 29th 1857

50

Dear ~~Memorandum~~, I have this morning rec'd yours of the 18th. Your report to the people of Lawrence has not reached me, ~~but~~ I have seen it and will give you my views on it with as I can, on the subject. I like your efforts at conciliation, much. The people ought to stand out for their utmost rights, but they ought to pre-serve a temporizing policy, parleying, stamping off, setting up obstacles in the way, but keeping good natured all the while, & at the same time counter-mun-ing him. This summer's work ought to be well finished & the papers hammered before the people's time is lost on political issues. Have the organization perfected for the elections, & try to voter down the Ruffian party. So for the Adpeka Constitution, & stick to it, without wavering.
Vote down any other const. that the body convention may propose. - Pay taxes to the Ruffian gov't, (if need be) - under protest until you can overthrow them. One Union now, the free states will be choosing congressmen again. If the Ruffians stick to their course, & if the