

that the Negro is not of the human race in short that he is not a man but that he distinctly & properly belongs to the baboon or monkey tribe to displace all this nonsense & trash from the rational mind it is only requisite to become a little acquainted with them & you will not only find that they are men but many of them possessed of great sagacity but this the Author is ready to acknowledge that it is possible so to grind down crush iron & whet the poor African that if he was to be let at liberty in that wretched state the good policy of such proceeding might be questioned let a poor fellow of that description loose at once goaded & lacerated & full of revenge he might become a terror to the neighbourhood & an object of dread

Chap 19

Different kinds of Slaves

There is an old saying that have been frequently quoted many men of many minds & many birds of many kinds & there are Slaves of many minds & Slaves of many kinds but those Slaves who are of the most murderous & designing haughty impetuous character will generally be found among the Mixed breed or Mulattos there appears to be a great proportion of the Spanish or Italian Character Mixed up in their composition Dark Mysterious & Bloodthirsty