

ANNOUNCEMENT.

The Overland Publishing Company have now in preparation a Series of Illustrated Descriptive Hand-Books, entitled

Croftutt's Utah and the Great Basin;
Croftutt's Colorado and New Mexico;
Croftutt in the Black Hills,
How he got there, and what is to be seen;
Croftutt Beyond the Sierras, including Southern California and Arizona.

These four Books, together with the "OVERLAND" will contain over $25,000 worth of illustrations, and will embrace a full and complete description of the resources of these States and Territories, in Mines, Railroads, Agricultural, Pastoral and other pursuits, including scenery, resorts for health and pleasure, hunting, fishing, etc., etc.

These Books will be in uniform Editions, in size and binding, and will retail for the half of the "Daddys' Dollar."

THE OVERLAND PUBLISHING CO.,

ASHLAND BLOCK,

Chicago, Ill.

—No. 24.—