

On my worthy landlord on his back he instantly called out to me to assist him but on my arriving & seizing the rope he managed to get the rope twisted round me & pulling with that force that I surely thought he would have torn me asunder but my landlord seized the rope at that juncture & with superhuman energy jerked the rope from of me which was a great although I still feel the bad effects of it & shall no doubt to the day of my death. Some time previous to this circumstance I heard that my cow & calf had been found 40 miles distant & had been brought back to Oparotamie & sold again but that the person who purchased them was sick & could not attend to them consequently consigned them to the care of a person who had several cows &c of his own on hearing this I applied to the person but after asking several questions concerning them could not obtain very satisfactory answers & as they was removed to the residence of the owner I was determined to go there to satisfy myself on arriving at the place & looking for a moment at them I was quite satisfied they were the renegades I accordingly went into the house & informed the gentleman of the circumstance who said he had heard something of the circumstance &
