at, either; each has its advantages; each its peculiarities; and whatever might be the opinion of the Company, every individual would or ought to select the one or the other, or avoid all, as his own interest dictates.

The Company, it should be distinctly understood, is sending to Kanzas; it knows neither North, South, East, nor West, to the exclusion of the remainder; it is desirous of seeing the whole peopled with good men and true, who will maintain their own rights, and respect those of others; who, whilst they resolutely resist being encroached upon by the lawless and reckless, whencesoever they may come, will carefully refrain from committing unjust acts, or uttering harsh epithets against others, simply for a difference of opinion; who, save in extreme cases, will rely for victory upon the teachings of the Bible and instructions of the Ballot-box, instead of the influence of the bottle and destructiveness of the musket; discarding the bottle altogether, and reserving the musket as a dernier resort.

Modes of Communication.—All Letters sent to the care of the Company's Agent at Lawrence, will be forwarded, as opportunities offer, to the individuals address. Those intended for Lawrence, Topeka, Leavenworth, Big Springs, Blanton, Council City, Easton, Grasshopper Falls, Juniata, Manhattan, Ocena, Osawatomie, and Wabonsé, K. T., may be addressed direct, as a Post Office has been established at each of these Places.

Sources of Information. Newspapers. — Those who are desirous of procuring a large amount of information at a small expense, and of being kept posted up on Territorial affairs, should subscribe to the Herald of Freedom, published weekly at Lawrence, K. T.; the first volume, now completed, contains a greater quantity of material of a practical character relating to Kanzas, than is elsewhere to be found. The second volume is now in its fourth quarter. By sending address and subscription, ($2,) to the Secretary, the Paper will in due time be forwarded.
