

the great benefits, and decided advantages resulting from free labor, a great majority of them will become worthy and efficient allies.

The Company does expect, however, that all who go out under its auspices will do so with the intention of becoming actual settlers.

Neither is it necessary for an individual who purposes removing to Kansas, to become a member of the Company, in order to join one of its Parties. Unless such an one has ample means, instead of subscribing for Stock, let him husband his means, in order to make them as available as possible after he arrives at his new abode.

WHAT TO TAKE, AND WHERE TO BUY.—Most articles not owned, had better not be purchased prior to reaching St. Louis or Kansas City. Good clothing, suited for service, not show, such as is adapted for this section of the Country, also bedding, (not beds, on account of their bulk,) and perhaps some choice articles of furniture, had better be sent along; but most of the necessaries for house-keeping, also agricultural implements, &c., can be obtained on reasonable terms at the places above designated. Indeed, all ordinary articles of house-keeping, husbandry, &c., may be now obtained in Lawrence, Leavenworth, and probably some other settlements within the Territory, on as reasonable terms as elsewhere.—Mechanics, who will require their tools immediately, had better take them along at baggage prices; time being to them money, they will save by this course.

CATTLE.—The price of good working cattle, horses, cows, &c., is nearly the same in Kansas and its vicinity as in New England; perhaps rather cheaper. The price of cows has heretofore ranged from $25 to $35; oxen per yoke, from $50 to $100; horses from $75 to $100 each; common sheep from $1,50 to $2,50 each.

CONSULT COMPANY'S AGENTS.—In regard to these and other purchases, as well as for information about the Territory, desirable places for settlement, &c., Parties
