The attention of passengers is directed to the elevation of each station.

Transfer Grounds.—These grounds are about two miles west of Council Bluffs, and about half a mile east of the Missouri River bridge. Here, all passengers, baggage, express, and mails arriving from the eastward, change to the cars of the Union Pacific railroad. The Union

Company have erected a large, fine building, which when finished will afford ample accommodation for passengers, and for the transaction of all kinds of business connected with the Transfer Grounds. Passengers will here need to re-check their baggage, and secure tickets in one of
