Mr Eads. I am in re<sup>pt</sup> of your last date not now remembered.

I learn from the Senior Ewing who is on visit here — looking after a fine farm near to Indianola, which he is making —

That Ohio's politics is very mixed.

It is certain the old "Salt Boiler" is mixed in his feelings respecting political affairs. If I understand the case rightly, he has come in his conservatism. Apropos of this do not run, if your chances for a defeat are good. This is not a lesson from my Experience, the fact being that my defeat has not on the whole <sup>been</sup> damaging to me.

No move has yet been made in our Congressional path. That is more beyond my ordinary correspondence & recent corresponding. I have been in heaven-=worth since my return steadily with the exception of a few days on Osawatimie trip. If I should be a candidate for Congress, it is pretty certain, that my interests —
