Edwin A. Parrott Dayton. O

Dear Ead. Monston will leave in the morning for Leavenworth on route for Ohio, I wish to send by him. I wish you could be in Cin & see him — he will return in a few weeks, with his family. I saw him at the Convention. You will doubtless see our proceedings. The N.Y. Tribune has a reporter here & also the Daily Missouri Democrat, you can easily get either. We have a small daily published here with the proceedings which I will send you now & then.
If we get into the Union <sup>at this</sup> the next session of Congress — you may consider me well to do in the intangible wealth of "future prospects".
This is — to day — my birth day — I am not quite certain of it — the second one I have passed in Kansas. No note of ~~some~~ ~~some~~ joy or grief marks the fluent hour or passing day. Would you were here amid the matchless magnificence of my
