

Sun 13.

Very warm - Made potato-dried beef soup & steamed a smallish loaf of Graham bread. Made a round tin of biscuit, a long square tin of ginger bread & preserved a jelly cup full of rose leaves. Scoured a tin wash basin that I found in cellar - but it was holey & no good when I got through the rust - Found a wooden bucket lined with tin under the sink - Some rusty but I think it is quite a find. Read in Piping Hah - Deuteronomy & four Spectator Speculations. Washed my feet &c. - Gave Pui a carpet of plantain leaves as I have every day of late with fresh seed & water & green food - Read papers. This evening Vesta called a few minutes. - ♀

Mon 14.

Very warm thunder showers in the distance. Carried a few books up stairs & unrolled the carpet that I had woven in Hammoncton. It looks as well as I expected, not very pretty. Found a pt of raspberries - black caps - on the bushes in the yard. Picked 4 1/2 red raspberries. Read in Deuteronomy. Called on Vesta & gave her a pt cup full of red raspberries. Carried Mrs Green's papers home, and my July Peoples Journal for her to read - Read in Piping Hah - I can find no sense in it - It is a translation from the French - (sing) ♀

Tues 15

Pleasant day although morning was cloudy & a slight sprinkle of rain. Canned the raspberries I picked yesterday (2 qt cans and some for sauce. Picked 2 1/2 qts - Took one qt to Young and he gave me 8 cts for it. Took one qt to Ellen & she gave me some supper & walked as far as Mosquito Bridge loaned me "Aire Fairy Lillian" by the Dutchess & Fair Play by Charles Reade, to read. - If nothing prevents I am to pick for Ellen 2 qts of berries for Ellen, ditto Young's - daily until further orders. Got my basket full of chip bark at Mill yard. - Read in Piping Hah & Deuteronomy - ♀

Weds 16.

Pleasant but very warm. Vesta gave me some pie plant sauce. Picked 4 qts berries for Ellen & 2 qts for Mrs Young, & delivered them to the house. Mrs Young gave me a small bouquet of sweet peas, double petunies & a Nasturtium - I filled my market basket with bark. Picked a pt red caps & about 10 pts of black caps for self - read in Deuteronomy & Piping Hah - Found Mrs Green's papers & mine on veranda when I returned from delivering berries - so I know Miss K. came - Lamp - ♀
Ellen got her 4 cts
