Dream, by C M Braeme, for me to read. Read in 2nd Sam 7

Tues 22.

Pleasant - but I was terribly sick & dizzy all day - Anna Belle came had to get her own dinner, & lunch & for supper - She went up to the village & I sent for a pound of Soda Crackers & cts & 3 lemons 6 cts Mrs G. called because she thought I was sick I sat on the back steps so long - Read some in Lady Diana's Pride -

Wed 23

Pleasant - I am some better, dizzy some but not much sick, & getting hungry - do not dare eat much beside crackers & lemonade Anna got her breakfast, & a bite for dinner did up the work and early in the P.M. Mary Dodson & F. Burrows came for her & she said good bye - Mary says Christopher Chase (crooked foot) is dead & buried - Dr Stevens had a stroke of paralysis if I understood she was speaking low & rapidly to Anna - Mrs Green kindly called to see if I was better - Finished Lady Diana's Pride & began Lady Gwendoline's Dream - Vesta called to tell me she was sick & I guess she is - says it is bronchial trouble &c -
Bertha Hemingway called for a drink & gave me an onion -

Thurs 24.

Pleasant - quite warm & very dusty - Built a fire, cooked taters and steamed what remains of my roast-beef & stewed what blackberries were left of the qt - Had 2 tomatoes for supper - one very small - Mrs Green made me a pleasant call, Vesta asked how I was & says she is no better - I am better but not independent of my cane - Miss K. called out there is a shadow between her and me - I scarcely know what, & don't care - Bought bread 10 cts & butter 20 cts of her - Wish & pray that I may not need her friendship any more, as she does not prize mine - Read & finished Lady G's Dream & 1st Kings & read some in 2nd Kings - I meant to say finished 2nd Sam & began 1st Kings -

Fri 25

Pleasant, with some clouds & looks like rain terribly dusty - Sanford pulled the beans & onions in garden, cut the few hills of sweet corn - There was ½ a bushel of onions - I cut the cucumbers from the vines & sent them to Ellen (20) - Got a handful of sage leaves & some seed & hope I have a root that will grow - I called & chatted with Mrs Simmons quite a while & she said I could have the sage in welcome, or I should not have got it - Mrs G. gave me a peach & I was glad to have it - When I got home the up town Grocer's boy persuaded me to buy a ½ bushel basket - 197 peaches and I paid a silver dollar for them & the basket - They were juicy & ½ of them spoiled - not a good trade - but I told Mrs G. that I was feeling hungry & it would be worth a dollar to me to
