

for Claud Harper. Lute ate a small lunch - was suffering with rheumatism - Said Fanna was not as well as common I wrote a line & sent the socks - Read Papers & Proverbs. ♀

Thurs 9
= A nice quiet day - smoky looking - Fally sick & vomited in the night. had to get up & clean up after her. She is not well today - I made brown bread, biscuits. Some of Chase's cookies that keep six weeks. - Yesterday I made two quarts of sauce of six quinces & sweet apples. & and I made a long square tin of ginger bread today brought in 80 sticks of wood - Got a soul embodied has called to see poor Lo today - Read as yesterday ♀
Wound 2 knots of Mrs Tarbox yarn & began Claud's socks -

Fri 10

Pleasant like yesterday - Took care of cider - Pared all the sweet apples in the house & am cooking them in Cider - not over a pt of slices - Brought in over 150 sticks of wood piling most of it in wood room - Got my father bed from up stairs & put it on bed in dining room bed room - Got some old Mags to read & finish Solomons Proverbs & begin Ecclesiastes - Mrs Green called - Knit - ♀

Sat 11

Another day of sunshine - Went to P. O. got Unity & Peoples Home Journal. I bought 5cts worth pepper mint lozenges. Got a basket of bark - brought 50 or more sticks of wood into wood room - A W Cross, Phila Emley - Grover & Deal. came to take dinner with me - Phila helped me get the dinner We called to Mr's store a few minutes - They started for home before sun down - Phila helped put my new table in dining room & and we set it & ate from it for the first time Br Cross asked a blessing - he was 83 years of age the 3rd day of Oct - I was glad they came - Read in evening & knit as usual. ♀

Sun 12

Some cloudy, but a nice day. Warm victuals - Read in Mags. & Peoples Journal - Finished Ecclesiastes, The Preacher & read one of the Songs of Solomon - Knit 20 rounds on Claud's sock Mrs Green called - Brought in 150 sticks of wood & it looks good piled in wood room - it is all in - looks like rain so I brought it all in. ♀

Mon 13

Some rainy & growing colder - Warm victuals - Wound the rest