

of the rest - Made a small Johnny cake and 15 small biscuits rather tough - but I can soak them in my porridge - ate some with butter & honey. some with strawberries - I cut my mince pie & ate some of Anna's wedding cake - Read the Symphany of the Ocean, some in Mrs G's papers & some of St Luke & Mon 8

Wintry - snowed in morning - sun shone after a while - Warmed bean porridge &c. Read as usual & sewed on apron - Cooked Mrs G's paper home, & she let me have the 25cts - 7

Thawed, but not much - Did not cook any new dishes - had cold & warmed over victuals - opened a can of red raspberry jam - Finished apron - David Tolman came to buy hay - got a sample of the poor hay to try - said he would make it right with Sanford - &c - Read part of Mrs E & E & Southworth's Outcast - Read in St Luke & Women of Worth & Tues 9

Weather like yesterday - Warmed victuals - Went to P.O. got a Unity & Sanford's Censor & Jan 1 Farm & Home - Bought 5cts worth of peppermint lozenges - Called on Mrs Simmons - & Mrs Green let me have a paper to read & read & returned it - Read in Censor and finished St Luke & one Chapter of St John - & finished reading the Outcast & Catharine Lincoln by Frank Lee Benedict & Wed 10

Snowing & wintry - Made a tin of Cream-tartar & Soda biscuit 16 gem pan cakes & a tin of ginger bread - stewed a few apples - Lute came with a load of wood - & a qt of milk & apples & buckwheat flour - & we squared our accounts - and my Charlotte tax is paid $1.55 + 31 + 1.06 = 29.2$ - I let Lute take money I had of Mina's $$7.72 + 10 =$ to get a P.O. Order to send to her - Let Lute have a bushel of my Turnips - Read as usual - Studied F & H. puzzles - & Thurs 11

Stormy & colder - Warmed victuals - split wood fine to dry in oven for kindling - Reading King Phillips daughter & Farm & Home - & St John - &c - & Fri 12

Pleasant - sunshine - Made corn meal mush - warmed & ate the last of the beans that I cooked last Sunday - Piled the cord of wood Lute brought, in coal bin - Wrote & sent for farm & Home & Uncle Tom's Cabin 62cts - Bought a gal Kerosene 7cts - Read as usual - & Sat 13 and a slice of plum jelly cake - Julia was over & fine