

Sat 20.

High winds which seem cold - Made a nice stew with dried beef an onion a little butter & a crust - Made graham mush & baked 6 little potatoes & 2 apples - Read papers & Dark Days, by Hugh Conway. finished Acts & read in Mormon Women &

Sun 21

Rained in the night - pleasant today - moon light this evening - Cooked potatoes, apples & dumplings - Ripped a piece of a cotton & tow bag & cut out 2 hand towels & made one - Read Dudley Carleon by M^r Braddon - & some in M. W. & 2 chapters of Paul the Apostles Epistle to the Romans &

Mon 22

Pleasant - Cooked 1/2 a doz potatoes & apples & a few little dumplings - Finished reading the Women of Mormonism & am glad I read it - Returned it to Mrs G. & her papers & she let me take two daily Buffalo news to read - in P. E. to the R. Knit &

Tues 23,

Pleasant & spring-like - heard a Chickadee singing - Cooked some dried beef in a gravy - an egg, & some corn & flour cakes - Went to P. O. - got a letter from Sadie - a Unity & Uncle Tom's Cabin - Called at Marshall Payne's - Hemmed the other tow & cotton hand towel - Called at Dr Totmans - was introduced to Mrs Perry Tolman - like her ways & looks well - Talia went with me - scared the hens so they flew & squealed - Sanford sold the hay; for my part $2.00 - the sorrel & orchard grass - I am to have eggs &c - I got 1 doz eggs, 18 cts & 2 lbs corned beef - To Ironed my 2 chimneys & drawers, a sheet & flour sack - Read in Paul's Epistle to the Romans - Mrs G's papers & a Low Marriage by Miss Mulock & Corned beef is boiling -

Wed 24

Rainy then snowy - ground white - Boiled beef more with 3 onions & 30 small potatoes & a small quantity of rice - Made buck wheat griddle cakes - Split an armful of wood fire, to dry in oven for kindling - Knit on table snare - Read stories & 5 concluding chapters of Paul's Epistles to the Romans & one in 1st Corinthians - Mrs Green came & returned my Mag. & I let her take Look Out &

Thurs 25

Windy - Made a Johnny cake - ginger bread buck wheat griddle cakes - fried an egg - Chopped some of the meat & potatoes for hash - & warmed some of it & the broth

and a slice of plum jelly cake - Julia was over & fine