

A pie, & bread & milk - Am hungry all the time - & dyspeptic
Read The Laurel Bush & papers of 7 Chapters of Revelations ♀

Fri 16 -

Cold & drifted, but some sunshine - A lovely evening almost as light as day - still & clear - Made some good fritters & buckwheat cakes - fried a slice of pork & had tea - Read stories, and 8 chapters of John's Revelations - puttered with rags - ♀

Sat 17.

Wintery - not much sunshine, & now squalls. & wind squalls
Made a vegetable soup with fried pork 3 onions & potatoes 3 turnips 1 beet 4 carrots - all small - & dumplings - Baked five potatoes & 8 wee biscuits & fried 3 pieces of the biscuit dough - Made a bib out of an old linen coat sleeve - Wrote to A. E. to send receipt for 6 dollars Money Order - Somebody, I don't know who came to see if I would rent my place - I was glad to say it was rented - Read stories and plan to finish Revelations of St John this evening - ♀ A.W.'s 77th Birthday - Have finished Revelations & the Bible
- I have read through

Sun 18.

Thawing - Went up stairs to carry some books & stayed awhile to get things so Kearslead could move, & I sneeze & sneeze & my nose runs & throat feels rough & disagreeable - Took a few stitches in my under wear - Warmd soup & fried buckwheat cakes &c - Roof & ^{leaks} water runs down in several of the rooms - oh botheration! Reading the story of Called Back by Hugh Conway - Wrote Minnie G. ♀

Mon 19

Thawing & sunshine most of the day, but snows a little this evening Warmd soup & ate brown bread, biscuit & crackers - Ate the last peaches in the can I opened not many days since - Went over & chatted awhile with Mr & Mrs Simmons & Mrs Green let me have 3 claries to keep & my "Uncle Tom's Cabins" which she had read - Mr Kearslead brought some of his wood & I got him to mail my letters to Fred & Minnie Moved some of my things out of parlor into my bed room & closet - Looked on rug & bread papers ♀

Tues 20

A little snow descended lazily - Gaves dripped awhile & sun shone fitfully - Made corn meal mush & warmd soup - Read Widow Bedot in Harvards Library - Built a fire in dining room and have got things so the Kearsleads can move my things on a short time tomorrow as they planned - out of their way ♀