

happiness & never mind what the neighbors say - None of them care for me. Got a dollars advance rent which pays to June 15th so I am a dollar in, any how - Lee just brought my first lot of the Grape belt - Worked on knit rug - ♀
Sat 2.

A very rainy day. Cooked a pt of beans - made 4 Graham biscuits - & melted a little granulated sugar. Worked on knit rug. Read Dorris' Fortune by Florence Warden - I feel better but can't help being disturbed by people - but I have rented my home & I have got to endure all annoyances - I won't give up if the spirit friends are for me - I can die if the world is too rough, & that is cheer - Don't be silly Lo! ♀
Made a Cottage pudding Cake, had good luck. M. K. brought my Farm & Home from P. Q.

Sun 3.

A pleasant day; but a thunder shower near 6 o'clock. Warm potatoes, cooked an egg, made butter gravy & a graham spider cake. Read the Old Oak Chest by S. Cobb jr. - Studied puzz. in Farm & Home - Called on Mrs. Simmons & Green. K. & I went away this P.M. & I had a good time alone - Made my bed & swept & dusted my bed room - I have a mental pain caused by nervousness and my poor selection of tenants & the unfriendliness of the human animal to that judge me - I don't know how to right myself - so must trust to the balm of time & my trust in my invisible friends ♀

Mon 4

Pleasant but rather cool. Boiled 10 potatoes - made gravy. Cooked a 1/2 pt of Tapioca - fried my last egg - made some griddle cakes - M. & K. made some advances in a friendly way & I did not reject them - She asked me to ride over to the Camp - but I excused myself - Mrs. Lee came to borrow & return my washboard & wanted some thread which I gave her - a few needles full - Read in author of Dora Thorne's Under the Lilacs & studied J & K puzzles - Cut some brush & worked in poses a little - ♀

Tues 5.

Rain & shine. Baked 5 potatoes - broiled - Studied puzz. I have 3 out of 5 - guess I will send the list - Went to P. Q. and mailed it - Bought a lb square crackers at Youngs 6 cts & a daily Buffalo News of Sutton boy 1 ct - Called on Mrs. Cummings. Read - ♀
