

bought 1 pt milk 2 1/2 cts - Warmed the soup & made gravy. Mopped my floors, & slicked around some. Read the papers I borrowed, and the last of John Ledgard. & began Charles Wilkes - Knit 9 scallops of lace. Mrs Bouguin & Mrs K. spent 1 hour or more here this evening. - Raining again this evening. - Steamed rice & oat meal ♀

November 1894

Thurs 1.

Rather pleasant today - Warmed, my soup, rice and oat meal & devoured them, also the griddle cakes that I made. Mrs K gave me a cup of sour milk. Read the rest of C. Wilkes - and all about Matthew G. Perry. - Read my Grape Belt & Farm & Home which Mrs K. brought from P. B. for me. Knit a few shells & bound off my lace. because I have used one spool ♀

Fri 2,

Froze water in tub slightly & a heavy white frost. Boiled potatoes & made gravy. Bought 1/2 a lb bread 2 1/2 cts. 1 pt milk 2 1/2 cts. 6 oz butter - after the rate of 25 cts a lb. & Mr K. let me have a sack of buckwheat flour 30 cts - Mrs Delisle visited me & I treated her to bread & butter & tea & honey, went a piece with her & got two largish pieces of bark. Mrs Bouguin called to have me read Grape Belt to her & I gave her a bunch of grapes which she ate & called sweet. Mrs K. gave me a cup of coffee & a cup of tea. I have enjoyed the day - Cut some rug piece - ♀

Sat 3.

Not pleasant. Breezy, cool, cloudy. - Made buckwheat griddle cakes, not very good. - but better than none. Made a vegetable stew - onion, turnip, beet & potato with rice - that was good. - Steamed potatoes, and dumplings, one plain one with grapes, both good. Worked on rug cutting rags; read some - Mrs K. has just given me buttermilk to mix buckwheat cakes for my breakfast - & borrowed my darning needle. Mr K's Aunt by marriage died today, & says a Telegram & Mr & Mrs K. plan to go to Leon to her funeral. - Cut finger nails ♀

Sun 4

Damp but not unpleasant. - Made some good buckwheat cakes. Mrs K. gave me a dish of warmed over potatoes & sold me 1 pt milk 2 1/2 cts. 12 oz butter - (25 cts lb) & let me have 6 cts to buy kerosene. Julia came & got dinner from Jim & gave me 2 buckwheat cakes, a wedge of pandowdy. Sold me 3 eggs - also with