

sweetened cream, 9 cold potatoes & 7 biscuits - Mrs & Mr K. started a little past 1 o'clock P.M.; - I skimmed the pan of milk for Bossy & took a cup for kits - Fed Bossy - Jim milked the cow & Julia strained the milk, & she & Jim went home before dark. Lute & Agnes called for a short time & Mrs. Bouguin & Mrs. B. brought her Grape belt & I read to her for an hour this evening - Cut a few rug rags. & Mon 5,

Showery, almost snow storm. I fed Bossy his mess of milk feed scalded with water & milk added, for his breakfast & supper, fed the hens, skimmed the milk, one pan morning one at night - Jim came & milked & took care of cow. - I made a cottage pudding cake & ginger cakes - Mrs Lee. returned my pan that she fixed for a steamer. Mrs Bouguin brought me an apple pie & 3 cookies - The cookies were dry but I liked them - The pie did not suit Mr S. and she said she should throw it to the hens if she had not brought it to me - I like it, but I did not like to have her bring it & say "don't say any thing about it" - If Mrs Simmons had sent it I would
- have been pleased - & I told her so, & she said she would only bring things this time - So I said thanks & that I was pleased to have the things and would say nothing about it - Read papers, &

Tues 6

Cold Cloudy & snows a little - Did the same chores as yesterday for the Kearsleads - and they have not returned Mrs Lee called, & Mrs Bouguin was in twice - I went to Youngs & got a pound of crackers 8cts and a gallon oil 6cts. & I have helped myself to what milk I wanted - not very much - Lee came & ate the pan dowdy & three of the biscuits so I did not make as well as I expected of Julia's donation - Put most of my canned fruit in pantry cupboard. Read - &

Wed 7

Snowing slowly in showers - Did chores as yesterday & read some - The Kearsleads returned at dusk weary & worn & sad, & I was glad to be relieved from care
I was not well last night but all right by day Made a cup Custard & steamed it in the Lee pan - &

Thurs 8

Ground white, but snow damp & melting - Boiled potatoes & made gravy - Read & studied pluz. Mr K. got me a Grape Belt. Fann & Home & letter from Mrs
