

of a qt of beans - Mrs K. gave me chicken gravy with a slice of bread - and a cup of tea - Read in Journal. Called 1/2 an hour at Simmons - Mrs Eliza Cummings & Mrs Bouguin spent the evening with me - & knit mittens - I knit one sock. ♀

Wed 14

Thawing - but seems cold, & snow does not disappear rapidly. Mrs K. gave me a couple of cups of buttermilk & skim milk mixed - Wrote short letters to Sophie White & Eliza Cummings & Cora Miller mailed them for me - Julia was over & called on me & I on her &c - She has a wicked cold - Read papers. ♀

Thurs 15

Thawing & warmer - though a chill breeze - Made buck-wheat cakes for breakfast & supper - stewed 2 potatoes - Worked on sock & read Unitars - Mrs Bouguin called & brought her knitting - this evening. ♀

Fri 16

Thawing so snow is disappearing rapidly - Boiled two potatoes & cooked a dish of oat meal - Read in Unitars - Studied pug in a transient paper - Mrs Cora Miller asked me to write in her husbands Autograph Album but I excused myself - Called in parlor a little while - Worked on sock. ♀

Sat 17

Snow fell last night but it is nearly gone today - Brought my tub of water into storm-room - Made corn meal mush & gruel. Melted some brown sugar - bought a pt of milk 2 1/2 cts - Cora Miller went home today & her mother cried when she was gone - Read - and worked on sock - Mrs Bouguin came with her knitting this evening & spent an hour with me - Mrs K. came in awhile she said I could have the 3 guineas & the pears - There was only half the pears left - 18. Jim K. sick. ♀

Sun 18

Colder but pleasant - Mrs K. sold me one pt of milk 1 lb butter 12 cts & I begged some pancake batter & some milk enough for two messes of cakes for one - & I made a cup of cocoa - Mrs Bouguin called a while & we planned to call upon Mrs Cummings after supper - I scrubbed my feet, changed my apparel & mopped slightly my kitchen floor - We went to Mrs C's & spent a couple of hours rating people - Yes we did, but I guess no harm will result. Jim reported a very sick man. ♀

Mon 19

Ground white with snow & freezing cold - Boiled
