

Thankful for all blessings & bestowments - Do not expect much so am doubly thankful for all I receive - Mrs Bouguin called &

December - 1894

Sat 1.

Thawing - Foggy in the morning - Snowed, then rained.
roads slippery & rough - Victuals same as yesterday.
K. gave me a cup of tea for dinner - I dreamed last night that I saw Pa pitching nice hay into a manger & I thought he would help me about paying taxes
& I trust he has a guardian care for poor Po. alone in this cold world - Wrote Mrs Samson, sent receipt to H & Kimbel to Sinclairville for the $5.21 and let Mr Young have the check on Jamestown for a blue Bill from him - Bought 5 stamps 10cts, lozenges 10cts Soap 5cts bird seed 8cts - Spent a couple of hours with Mrs Cummings - she was tearfully distressed with Pon in law - hatefulness - Mrs Bouguin came this evening with her knitting & I read to her - & to self &

Sun 2

Weather very much like yesterday - Boiled some potatoes & some oat flake & finished my chicken fricassee
I ironed dress, apron, chemise & 2 towels - Read in my Home Guest. Trimmed & filled my lamps in good order - Kicar & Steads went over to Jim's & report him a very little better - Mrs Bouguin came with her rags to cut for rugs - she gave me a few pieces of her & Grace & Rosa & baby Jackson's frocks. Mrs K. gave me so of Mary & Cora Miller's the other day - Bought a pt of milk this morning 2 1/2 cts. - &

Mon 3

No storm, not pleasant, or cold - Begged a cup of sour milk of Mrs K. & made buckwheat griddle cakes - Made a dish of corn meal mush for supper Mrs K gave me a plate of boiled dinner, & a wedge of Indian pudding with blackberries in it, & creamed, & sweetened milk for sauce - Late took Ruby to the train at 11. & he called a few minutes when he went home to see if I would go with him - "Veh" went to see Apina's sister aboard the P.M. six o'clock train & called to see if I had bees wax & I let him have as much as he wanted, without price - Knit 2 scallops of lace, found directions in Home Guest Read - Mrs Bouguin called awhile this evening Finished 100 yds of my rug.
