

Sat 26

Very stormy, blustering, & drifting - Made griddle cakes for my breakfast & fried brown bread - Mrs K. gave me cup of coffee - Made corn meal mush for self & hid night - Talla was afraid of Lee & fled, I guess to Mr S's Barn - Knit 4 rounds on rug & a few shells on Sophie lace - Kierstead brought my Grape Belt & Unity from P.C. Mrs Bouquin surprised me by coming over this evening as stormy as it is - I read in Grape Belt to her - She went home about 8 o'clock as usual & since I have been reading - R.P. of L - aloud by myself - ♀

Sun 27

Colder & just as stormy & drifting - Mrs K gave me some bits of rusty pork, a pt of skim milk, & a cup of coffee - I boiled the pork, a turnip, & 1/2 a doz small potatoes, made another brown bread dumpling with dried raspberries stirred in, & steamed - Made mush for cats - Bertie K. called on me this evening - Mrs Bouquin came over a little while this afternoon - I shoveled through the big drift at east door so she could get in - She brought me a slice of her dried apple cake, said it was her piece & she wanted to give it to me - I said it was too bad to give me her piece & go without herself, but I would have done the same for her, if similarly situated - She was cutting her rug rags & she gave me a handful of pieces - Said she wanted I should write a letter for her to a friend in Lunenburg by & by - I said I would with pleasure - Knit on lace & finished reading "The Royal Path of Life" - Ten o'clock & I will make ready for bed - ♀

Mon 28

Cold, stormy in morning, but not in afternoon - Mrs B and I shoveled out our path - and she called a few minutes in P.M. & came over this evening & knit on her rug - She brought me 8 Greenings - Mrs K gave me a pt of skim milk - Warmd some potato, corn meal mush & brown bread for breakfast & made graham mush for supper - Wimp Luce called to see if I would rent or sell my place to a Cherry Creek man - I said I would sell for $3,000 - but I do not expect he will give it - Cut pieces, made a small bag out of pieces of copper plate Mrs B. gave me - Knit on lace - Am dyspeptic, wrote to Homer & family - ♀

Tues 29.

Pleasant with sunshine - A few flakes of snow, & cold - but
