or indirectly connected with the lumber trade.

The Republican, a weekly paper, represents the interests of the Truckeeites.

The educational interests have been provided for, Nevada county, in which Truckee City is situated, being justly celebrated for her public schools.

There are three hotels in Truckee, the principal one being the Truckee House. At certain seasons of the year the cars stop before this house thirty minutes, affording time for the traveler to obtain a good meal. The Truckee House is the headquarters of the tourists who stop over to visit objects of interest in this locality. This station is the end of the Truckee, and the commencement of the Sacramento divisions.

The company have a 24-stall roundhouse and the usual machine and repair shops of a division located here.

A line of stages leaves Truckee, daily, for Donner Lake, two miles; Lake Tahoe, twelve miles; Sierraville, 30 miles. A good wagon-road connects Sierra City with Truckee via the Henness Pass and Donner Lake.

Freight is re-shipped here for Donner and Tahoe Lakes, Sierraville, and the various towns in Sierra Valley. There are some wholesale and retail houses in Truckee, which do a large business.

LAKE TAHOE, or Bigler, as it is called on some of the official maps, is located twelve miles south of Truckee. Tahoe is an Indian name signifying "big water," and is pronounced by the Indians, "Tah-oo," while the "pale faces" pronounce it "Tah-oe." From Truckee a splendid road af-
