

THE ADVANCE.

(CHICAGO,—Established 1867.)

A NATIONAL WEEKLY JOURNAL,

Devoted to Literature, the Esthetic and Useful Arts, and a candid presentation of Social and Religious subjects—pre-eminent as a Wide-Awake Progressive Christian Newspaper,

Acknowledged to be the leading religious newspaper of the Interior and West, and ranking with the foremost in that department throughout our country.

THE ADVANCE

has an extensive circulation, well established, and including every State and Territory in the United States, as also many foreign countries. Its reading columns command the best talent among eminent writers, and its advertising space the patronage of all sections. From the same office are issued the monthly periodicals, containing notes on the International Lessons, believed to be unsurpassed in quality and cheapness as Sunday School helps for older scholars, Bible classes and teachers. For further information regarding THE ADVANCE, “Bible Studies,” etc., or for sample copies of same, address the publishers,

“Illustrated Bible Studies” and “Advance Lesson Leaves,”
