

McN 1/29/54

CONTENTS.

	PAGE
INTRODUCTORY ARTICLE.— The Territory beyond the Mississippi — The two Great Railroads — The Excursion . . . . .	5
LETTER I.— Arrival at Clear Creek, the end of the finished Road — Meeting of the Excursionists at Clear Creek — Ellsworth — Arrival at Fort Harker — Curious Rocks — Prairie Grass — Country last passed over — Fort Harker — Another Meeting — Leave-taking — Expedition to Pond Creek . . . . .	11
LETTER II.— Tornadoes and Rain — Party to Pond Creek — A Ranch — Solidity of the Earth — Wells — Length of the Smoky Hill . . . . .	16
LETTER III.— Continuance of the Flood — Change in the Soil — Buffalo Grass dying out — Wild Plums and other Fruit . . . . .	19
LETTER IV.— The Flood — The Question of Routes . . . . .	21
LETTER V.— Prairie Dogs — Rambling Observations — Enterprise of Chicago — Connection of Chicago with this State and Road . . . . .	24
LETTER VI.— Water falling — A New Hotel — Return of two of the Pond Creek Party — Observations upon the Country above . . . . .	28
LETTER VII.— Arrival at Lawrence — Flood in the Smoky Hill and Kansas . . . . .	31
LETTER VIII.— Trees in Kansas . . . . .	34
LETTER IX.— Mineral Resources of Kansas — Magnesian Lime- stone, its abundance and excellence as a Building Material — Other Varieties of Stone — Marble — General Remarks . . . . .	37
LETTER X.— Mineral Resources of Kansas, continued — Coal — Salt — Gypsum — Alum — Iron . . . . .	41
LETTER XI.— Towns in Kansas — Leavenworth — Rivalry with Kansas City — Lawrence — Its Location, Beauty and History — Swift Retribution — Brief Mention of an old Friend . . . . .	45
LETTER XII.— Towns in Kansas, continued . . . . .	50
LETTER XIII.— Towns in Kansas, concluded — The Neosho Val- ley — Seasons in Kansas — A word to such as may think of Emigrating . . . . .	53

467970