

and I know how it was for they toled me Mr Brownhead I of his 6 sons killed here in the troubles of 1856 and so he is paying them for it he liberated 11 slaves which made the proslavery men damnd mad but all to no use they could not help them selves for if slave gets in here he is sent to Connelly in great haste the troubles are all over now so I shall not write any more about them now. Now I will write about the wether and country the wether is like summer here now the grass is green and every thing is hand som tell father if he can get 2000 dollars for wadd he has got to take it and come out here he can make money as fast as he has a mind to and if he can not sell to get
