At the Directory as we had as much as we could possibly do to get the luggage to ^{the} railroad Station & on board the luggage van & then they wanted to charge me 2 Dollars more for extra luggage but I got of for 12 shilling. I then for log on Hundred of miles to Chicago star ted at 9 O'clock travelled all night & gain & another shifting luggage to a different railway depot & starting at 10 O'clock travelling all night & day through long woods & immense Large prairies but some of our comp any & many people about New York have made great Mistakes concerning these prairies it had been represented that they were covered with a rank coarse kind of Grass like sticks with strong deep roots in the ground - but I am happy to say, it is not so it is true that the Grass is luxuriant & pretty coarse but the roots are by no means deep in the ground like couch grass but easily taken of with a shovel or spade & there is
