Greetings for 1910.

Just to remind you that I am still running a meat market in Dewitt and that as in times past I adhere strictly to the rule that nothing but the best products are offered for sale in my place. Also that I have finished harvesting a fine crop of Ice that I will place on the market when the weather conditions are more favorable. Don't forget these three things.

Beginning with the new year just try to remember and see if it does not work to the mutual advantage of both of us. Wishing you a very prosperous year, I am

Yours Respectfully, EDGAR ROSSITER. Henry Schlake
