

The "Treason Prisoners"

RH
PH
18
K:212

who were arrested by proslavery officials of Kansas Territory in May, 1856, and held without bail until September 10th, guarded by U.S. soldiers in a camp near Leecompton. This picture is from a daguerreotype taken in front of their tent. The names of the prisoners from left to right are:

George W. Brown; John Brown, Jr., with his hand on his five-year-old son Johnny; George W. Smith; Charles Robinson; Gaius Jenkins; H. H. Williams and George W. Deitzler.

Camera Club exchange picture, 1932.

Edward Bumgardner.