

AMERICAN

ON ACTIVE SERVICE
WITH THE
AMERICAN EXPEDITIONARY FORCE

February 1919

191

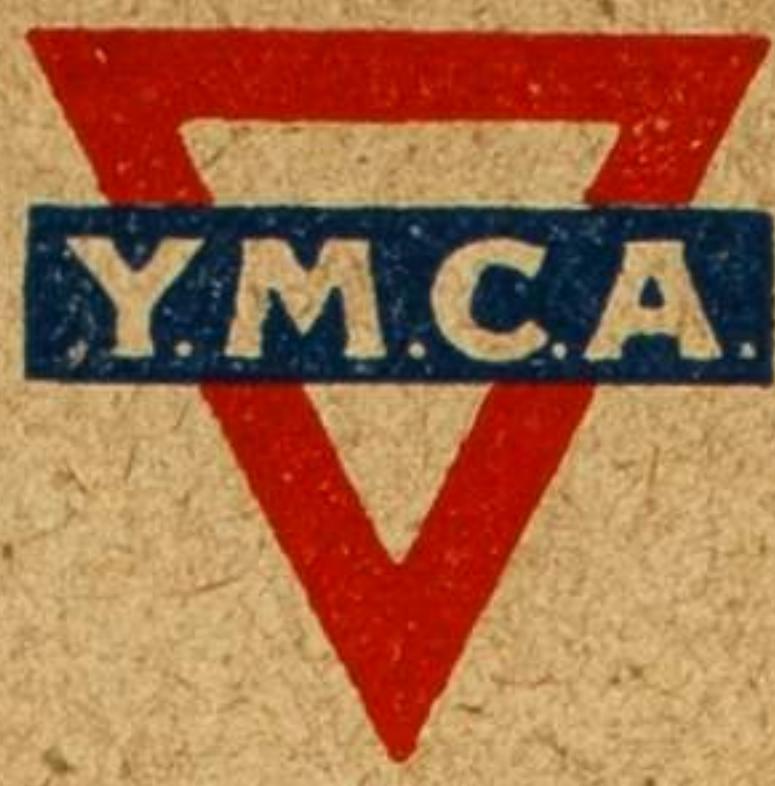

Amiens, France.

Dear Father and Sister:
Last night I received one letter from you under date of 1/24 (also one from W. E. Hampshire and Rupert MacLennan) R. M.
and am in Remeslange, Supervising.

My outfit was arrived with the return of the 35th and 89th Divisions so just
now. Don't mind my news
here here until you get news.

Officer J. H. Peacock said was getting very bad and frightful. They had to be sure.

AMERICAN

ON ACTIVE SERVICE
WITH THE
AMERICAN EXPEDITIONARY FORCE

191

The article about Ralph Randall is quite true, I can't voice his statement, for I was Johnny on the spot. It was about 4 o'clock on the morning of Sept. 24th after our arrival late the night before. Every mail truck had been burning up high explosive all night and I had been sending for a few reminders, & I sat all night, but about 4 P.M. he put over a mail van, it was thru' I found Hart's after some flying bags went in and out after