

Fishing and bicycling are the sports of the season here. But the bunch from Camp Doniphan take more to "promenading" or walking with the many fair mademoiselles. We being the first American soldiers in this section of France, we seem very attractive to them.

Well, the Allies are romping on the Dutch now and the dope is, "we will be back in the States within 6 months." But I hope to have the pleasure of visiting Spain before my return. It is not every year that we have the opportunity to see these foreign lands and I want to go around the "globe" and take them all in if possible.

We had Regimental Sunday school just across the street this A. M. Arthur Knox and Bugler Hess from South Haven were over. Most all natives are Catholics that I have seen and the church bells ring almost constantly.

The boys have been powdering the girls up here this afternoon. They don't "compra" (understand) the art of
