This finds us (the Argonia bunch) at a new training camp. We all are well and located nearer to each other than ever before.

I hated to leave the O. M. at the other camp for, we the O. M. force sure had a fine time during our stay. But (the O. M. bunch) we are together on same detail here. The night before we left, the lady of the café gave us, two cooks, a water and myself a seven course
