

"WITH THE COLORS"

Somewhere in England.

6/2/1918

Dear Father and Sisters:

I arrived safely overseas.

Must say I enjoyed the trip from the time we left our camp in Okla. until we landed at our present camp. And more too, I never got sea-sick, sick of the sea or fed the fish on our trip across the salt-water pond.

What short time I have been here. I have had the pleasure of seeing much of this beautiful country. Was out walking this evening and I strolled over to one of the big estates nearby. It is just as Raymond Flory
