"With the Army Forces Somewhere in France."
Dear Father and Sisters:-

We are having more rain again to - I write. Being so near coast either by south or west is partly due to so much rainfall.

It sure does not seem possible for the third largest vessel in the world being sunk by a torpedo. We were in N. Y. harbor docked near it just before our departure and I thought it the most beautiful vessel I had seen and when we got in the rough sea some 300 miles from Greenland this big transport could be seen sailing as smoothly as
