"WITH THE COLORS"

Aug. 11th, 1918.

"Somewhere in France,
With the Amer. Forces."
Dear Father and Sisters:- Please pardon me for not writing sooner, but have neglected writing Raymond and Ruth since writing you last.

This is a most beautiful
Sunday morning in France.
Sun-shining brightly, but not hot like in southern Texas, very cool breeze blowing as fresh as if off the sea.

As our Band marched to Y. M. C. A. this A. M. to Church playing "Onward Christian Soldiers", it brought back memories of Sunday Morning in Argonia and especially Supt. Dewall.

"WITH THE COLORS"

2.

He is still the Supt. over Sam &cott the leading man?

At our next camp I have the choice of two Officers' Messrs to work in. Think I will continue my same old job, for our Mess officer has been exceptionally good to me. Received an increase of pay from Mess, but our Battery has no use for Wagons at present and we Wagoners were reduced to Privates. But doubt if I would have given up job here at Mess to ^{have} driven truck!

Chris Jergens, Merle Phillipis, and Leigh Clark were over to visit with me last evening.
Am very thankful to know all the home boys in this bunch are enjoying such good
