

ican can milk and jams were found on their tables like it was later discovered in a German Canteen we captured. The only souvenir that I am carrying at present is a blouse button off of a Jerry's blouse. It is now located in a permanent rest camp. Many of the boys are loaded to the hubs with German helmets and other articles of the Dutch. After we advanced, the cook and I were ordered to stay behind with our Mess Equipment but I stole ^{up} with in sight of the fleeing enemy more than once.

Glad to tell, all the Argonia bunch in the Artillery came out with out a wound. No wonder tho, for "Jack" Gen. Pershing was in Command.

Please send me a copy of the Chaplain's letter, as our 2nd Class mail matter has been delayed for many weeks.
