

nothing. Believe me, U. Sam gives the boys at the Front the first choice of every thing that is issued. In the line of tobacco we get Bull Durham, Star, and Best Jack; and in clothing the best of wool in underwear, socks, shirts and gloves.

We now have a second-cook in the O. M. kitchen from N. C., a former Armour Packing Co. salesman. He undoubtedly is related to Will Segebart for actions and resemblance you would think him a brother to Old Bill. And for a lively time we sure have been having it, to-day I have laughed so much I fairly ache. The other two of our force are fine fellows, one a drug clerk from Topeka and the other a dry goods salesman from Texas. Quite a combination for an O. M. crew but are serving the good eats and having a pleasant time with it. Our old chef from N. C. transferred to our Regt. Band a short time ago.

The day has passed without much activity on this sector of the Verdun Front and only a few big cannon can be heard to-nite in the far distance.

The Kaiser and Prince Max of Baden don't create much excitement with their peace dope
