

AMERICAN

For my duties are few, boo-coo of good eats, and cozy little hut to sleep in, as well as, a big fire-place and plush settee to read and write by.

On the 25th inst. I was called into Regt. Hdq. and presented with the first "Overseas" furlough to be given in the B.O.F.A. I refused to sign it at that time, thinking possibly there might be a big show staged for "judy" by the Yanks. I understand that I have again been recommended for furlough soon. Possibly I will go this time for it is a leave of 10 days with board, room, and transportation charges paid to a famous French resort where the many American Tourists spent their summers prior to 1914. No kidding, there are a bunch of Officers here that sure are loyal to me, in fact, they treat me more like a son ^{rather} than a soldier.

I came up here on the 10/17 and have not seen any of the Argonia Bunch since. Am at liberty to go back to near Tachelon where they are stationed, but like it so well here I have never gone down for
