

change, she said yes. Its take somethings like this to happen before he knows, well I do. more then I ever ~~had~~ known

I never mess with my goals, I don't want any. All I want was a home for you. so that after we got it, we could enjoy it.

well I don't know if you are reading these letters or not all I know I want you to call me, and say major I want to come home. That will make me the happiest man in the world.

Love always
Major.
